The tableware collection, inspired by the symphony, is a brilliant fusion of cross-disciplinary art. It not only views tableware as a tool for everyday dining but also as a flowing musical composition on the dining table, creating a dual feast for both the senses of taste and sight.

The collection is based on the harmonious resonance of the various instruments in a symphony orchestra. Each piece of tableware is endowed with its own unique "tone" and "role," collectively performing a symphony of food and aesthetics on the table. From solos to ensembles, every piece of tableware carries an ultimate pursuit of detail and a profound understanding of beauty.
